State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Arnie Wildermuth prepared himself for leadership by graduating from Tripp High School, the University of South Dakota, and Theology Seminary in Iowa; and,

WHEREAS, Never one to shirk duty, Arnie devoted six years of his life to our country during World War II; and,

WHEREAS, Always ready to aid his community and his fellow man, Arnie has been a member of the Dell Rapids Volunteer Fire Department for twenty-nine years, and by setting a good example for his son, Paul, he influenced him to join the department also, and they are the first and only father-son team on the fire department; and,

WHEREAS, Recognizing the importance an adult makes in the development of young people, Arnie has taught Sunday School for sixteen years; and,

WHEREAS, Finding yet another area in which he could make a contribution to the young people of Dell Rapids, Arnie involved himself in the school athletic program as a coach, official and timekeeper; and,

WHEREAS, Arnie Wildermuth has served as the President of the South Dakota Municipal League for the past two years and will be retiring from that position on October 10, 1984:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 10, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues in the Municipal League, the people of Dell Rapids, his three sons and daughter in wishing him a memorable day and an enjoyable future of devoting more time to fishing and golf now that he has handed over the reins of one of his civic duties.
